

PBS BEAD RETREAT

Tolovana Inn, Cannon Beach, Oregon

March 2, 3, & 4, 2012

(A registrant must be a member in good standing as of Sept. 2, 2011, to participate)*

Tuition: $75/applicant. Tuition includes daily Continental-style breakfast, buffet lunches, snacks, and beverages. All tuition checks will be cashed soon after they are received. If an attendee withdraws from the Retreat before the deadline of February 15, 2012, a PBS refund check will be issued in the attendee's name. If you wish to attend for one day only, submit an application, a $25 check, and if there are openings, we will try to accommodate you.

Accommodations: Applicants make their own room reservations with Tolovana Inn which offers reduced room rates. Be sure to tell the Inn that you are part of PBS to receive the discount.

Activities: Free Beading Classes, Bead games, Wine & Cheese Social, Swap & Sell, Bead Challenge, and other activities. A detailed email about the activities will follow registration.

The 2012 Margaret Scovil Bead Challenge is to "Bead a Bird". The bird may be two- (flat) or three-dimensional. It may be a single bird or multiple birds that are united as one theme. The bird must be at least 75% stitched beads and its entire body shown. If submitting a grouping, only one full body must be shown. There are no size limitations. Your entry may be disqualified if these requirements are ignored. Three categories are: 1) Mythical; 2) Whimsical; 3) Realistic. There will also be a "Best-in-Show."

Exception: After Feb. 2, 2012, any unfilled registrations will be offered to new PBS members so please apply even if you joined PBS after the September 2, 2011, deadline. We usually have cancellations.

NOTE: Bead Retreat activities, catered meals, food and water are for Retreat attendees only. On Friday evening, there will be a Wine and Cheese Social; attendees are welcome to bring a guest to this event.

2012 PBS Bead Retreat Registration Form

Housing: Applicants must make their own room and room-mate arrangements. Please call Tolovana Inn at (503)436-2211 for reservations. Tell the Inn that you are part of the PBS Bead Retreat to get a 10% room discount.
